

Permission to Publish and Open Access Copyright Transfer Agreement

Assignment of Rights

The Portuguese Kidney Journal (PKJ) does not accept for publication any manuscript that has been published elsewhere. Your consent to the following assignments of rights, also on behalf of the other authors (if several authors contribute to the manuscript), and the signing of this Open Access Copyright Transfer Agreement is a necessary requirement for the publication of your manuscript.

Without prejudice to this assignment of rights, the moral rights in connection with the article shall remain with you and the other authors.

The article will be published under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial License (CC BY-NC 4.0). <https://creativecommons.org/>

This license means that anyone may freely read, download, distribute and make the article available to the public (in printed and electronic form), provided that the author and the journal as the source are acknowledged, whereas no commercial use is allowed and the work may not be altered, transformed or serve as the basis for a derivative work.

The PKJ will endeavor to ensure maximum dissemination of your manuscript and to protect your authors' rights against misuse, such as plagiarism.

For this reason upon acceptance of the manuscript by us you and your co-authors agree to hereby transfer on a non-exclusive basis copyright to The Portuguese Kidney Journal. This includes (in addition to the publication under a CC- BY - NC- license), for the duration of the statutory term of copyright protection and throughout the world, the full rights to use the paper (including excerpts thereof) within the journal or separate to it, on a commercial or non-commercial basis, linked to other works or papers, audio-visual accompanying materials or interactive products or services, including the transfer to third parties (e.g., under license agreements, etc.)

The PKJ will take your and your co-authors' legitimate interests into account in this respect.

Author rights:

- Retain patent and trademark rights
- Retain the rights to use their research data freely without any restriction
- Receive proper attribution and credit for their published work
- Re-use their own material in new works without permission or payment (with full acknowledgement of the original article):
 1. Extend an article to book length
 2. Include an article in a subsequent compilation of their own work
 3. Re-use portions, excerpts, and their own figures or tables in other works.
- Use and share their works for scholarly purposes (with full acknowledgement of the original article):
 1. In their own classroom teaching. Electronic and physical distribution of copies is permitted
 2. If an author is speaking at a conference, they can present the article and distribute copies to the attendees
 3. Distribute the article, including by email, to their students and to research colleagues who they know for their personal use
 4. Share and publicize the article via Share Links
 5. Include in a thesis or dissertation (provided this is not published commercially)

6. Share copies of their article privately as part of an invitation-only work group on commercial sites with which the publisher has a hosting agreement

- Publicly share the preprint on any website or repository at any time.
- Publicly share the accepted manuscript on non-commercial sites using a CC BY-NC-ND license
- Publicly share the final published article
- Retain copyright

Author's Declaration

I have taken note of the information on the duties of care under product liability law; I agree to the assignments of rights in accordance with the foregoing sections "Assignment of Rights" and also on behalf of the other authors (if several authors have contributed to the article). I declare that I am authorized by my co-authors to sign on their behalf.

I declare that no third party rights will be infringed through the publication. Any material contained in the manuscript (including illustrations, tables, or other material) from third-party sources will be identified as such through citation, indicating the source. If required, I have obtained the copyright permission from the publishers concerned.

I have read and understood the terms and conditions of the CC - BY - NC - license and I agree also on behalf of the other authors (if several authors have contributed to the article) that the article will be published under such a license.
